NEW TREATY PLANNED

Germany Expected to Submit
New Trade Agreement.

PROPOSALS IMMEDIATELY

Open War the Alternative — If Negotations Fail, Dingley War "Arrangement" May End on Month's Notice.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Baron Speck Von Sternburg, the German ambassador, is expected to present in a few days to the state department the bases upon which his government is willing to enter upon negotiations with the United States government for a new trade treaty or some kind of arrangement that will state of the dreaded "tariff war," which otherwise the department officials fear must certainly begin within four months.

The state department has, so far, failed to admit the German contention regarding the "arrangement" under section 3 of the Dingley act, by the terms of which the United States secures favored nation treatment in the matter of trade with Germany. This German view was based on the fact that new treaties, exclusive in terms, have just been made with a number of European countries and that America was debarred from claiming the benefits of the special low customs rates named unless she entered into a special convention with Germany.

But attention has now been called to the fact that this Dingley act "arrangement" is by its own terms termina-ble upon one month's notice from either party, and it is not doubted that without prolonging the controversy over the effect upon the vitality of the Dingley act "arrangement" of the new European treaties, Germany will give the requisite month's notice before March 1 next, and thus terminate the life of the arrangement beyond question.

Nothing is known officially as to the substance of Baron Sternburg's proposals. He may propose a new arrangement under section 3 of the Dingley act, replacing the paragraph in the existing arrangement conferring minimum tariff rates upon American imports, by a new section limiting the minimum to a few articles of American origin.

This arrangement has been suggested by the Germans on the ground that the general concession of minimum rates on all American products is a very much more valuable concession to America than this country is able to extend to Germany under section 3, because the reduced duties therein provided for are limited to distilled wines, Vermouth, Argols and works of art.

Another course is the negotiation of a general reciprocity treaty. Section 4 of the Dingley act, authorizing the negotiation of reciprocity treaties under specified conditions, has expired by limitation.

The question of the expediency of negotiating a treaty under his general constitutional powers in view of the failure of the senate so far to act upon any of the pending reciprocity treaties, would have to be decided by President Roosevelt before the state department can enter upon the negotiation of details.

WILL STUDY OUR PLAN.

Chinese Constitution Makers on Way to America.

New York, Nov. 4.—Yu Chuan Chang, who says he is secretary of a commission appointed to formulate a constitution for China, based mainly upon that of Great Britain, but embodying the good features of republican government, arrived Thursday from Hamburg.

He says the commission has already made a study of the Japanese system.
The commission comprises Prince Tsai Chi, Tia Hung Chi, Hsu Kwong Chi and Tuan Fong. The last named is the governor of Hunan.

It is likely Mr. Chang says, that the commission will arrive here in about three weeks. The members will go directly to Washington.

They will be empowered to draw up a constitution for the new China.

BURLINGTON'S BLACK LIST.

There Are Now 820 Persons Who Can't Get Liquor.

Burlington, November 4.—There are today 820 names on the black list of the saloons of the city of Burlington which means that this number of people are prohibited from buying liquor within the present liquor law. A year ago there were 780 names posted on these lists. There is, therefore, an increase of forty persons posted within the past year. Because these persons have been convicted of violations of the license local option law their names are on this list.

JEFFERSON ISLE RICHER.

Minerals Found on Summer Place of Famous Actor.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 4.—Executors of the estate of the actor, Joseph Jefferson, have discovered that he possessed a rich inheritance in Louisiana.
It has been learned that Jefferson Island, where the actor's favorite summer home was located, contains rich veins of the finest salt, and possibly other minerals, that will now be mined.

The executors filed in the court of Iberia parish, this state, Thursday, a bond for $157,512 before proceeding to the settlement of the estate, the size of the court bond indicating the value.
